

ORIGIN: Purdue USA

- Breeder: Purdue research foundation
- Licence holder: IFO

PICKING DATE: 10 days before Golden Delicious
(End of Gala)

FRUIT SIZE:

BLOSSOM: average

POLLINATED BY:

- 50% Malus INRA Perpetu® Evereste + 50% Malus INRA Baugene®
- 50% Malus INRA Perpetu® Evereste + 50% Malus Golden Gem
- Any other diploid variety with the same blossom date

TREE TYPE: type III/IV between Golden Delicious and Granny Smith

GROWTH: average

PRODUCTIVITY:

- Time till first cropping: slow
- Yields: good
- Susceptibility to alternate bearing: low
- Thinning: as difficult as Gala

SUSCEPTIBILITY / RESISTANCE TO DISEASES :

- Resistant to scab (gen Vf)
- Susceptible to mildew
- Average to low susceptibility to rosy apple aphid

FRUIT:

- Skin: Shiny dark red
- Flesh: Firm and fine
- Taste : Very good balance between sugars and acidity

STORAGE:

- Cold storage: December
- CA storage: March

USES:

- Suitable for organic orchards
- One of the sweetest scab resistant varieties
- Very important to store the fruit in CA storage for post-Christmas sales

NOTES: