

ORIGIN: cross of Jonathan x Worcester Pearmain, Japan

PICKING DATE: 3 weeks before Gala

FRUIT SIZE:

BLOSSOM DATE: 4 days before Golden Delicious

POLLINATED BY: Golden Delicious, Granny Smith, Gala, Reine des Reinettes, Malus Golden Gem, Malus INRA Perpetu® Evereste

TREE TYPE: type III, upright growth, few branches

GROWTH: weak to average

PRODUCTIVITY:

- Time till first cropping: average
- Yields: average
- Susceptibility to alternate bearing: average
- Thinning: easy

SUSCEPTIBILITY / RESISTANCE TO DISEASES:

- Reasonably tolerant to scab
- Low susceptibility to mildew

FRUIT:

- Skin: blushed and bright red
- Flesh: juicy, crisp, fine flesh,
- Taste: good balance between sugars and acidity

STORAGE: 2 to 3 months depending on the maturity at picking

USES:

- For early sales
- Suitable for organic orchards

NOTES: