

ORIGIN: sport of Golden Delicious, Netherlands
Licence holder: Davodeau Ligonnière

PICKING DATE: Golden Delicious (mid-season)

FRUIT SIZE:

BLOSSOM: average

POLLINATED BY :

- Red Delicious, Granny Smith, Gala, Fuji, Reine des Reinettes
- Malus INRA Perpetu® Evereste, Malus Golden Gem, Malus INRA Baugene®

POLLINATOR FOR: Red Delicious, Fuji, Elstar

TREE TYPE: type III

GROWTH: average to good

PRODUCTIVITY:

- Time till first cropping: very rapid
- Yields: very good in the adapted areas
- Susceptibility to alternate bearing: low
- Chemical thinning: rather easy

SUSCEPTIBILITY / RESISTANCE TO DISEASES:

- Susceptible to scab
- Average susceptible to mildew
- Low susceptibility to canker

FRUIT:

- Skin: smooth, very light lenticels, very susceptible to russetting
- Flesh: crisp and juicy
- Taste: good balance between flavour, sugars and acidity (especially in the adapted areas)

STORAGE:

- Cold storage: February
- CA storage: June / July

USES:

- Optimal qualities in mountainous areas
- Especially adapted to the markets of Northern Europe

